Information on how to submit a manuscript is available online:
<http://www.aeaweb.org/aer/submissions.html>

It is the policy of The American Economic Review to publish papers only if the data used in the analysis are clearly and precisely documented and are readily available to any researcher for purposes of replication. Details of the computations sufficient to permit replication must be provided. The Editor should be notified at the time of submission if the data used in a paper are proprietary or if, for some other reason, the requirements above cannot be met.

Readers interested in the issues discussed by Anwar and Fang, "An Alternative Test of Racial Prejudice in Motor Vehicle Searches: Theory and Evidence," appearing in the March 2006 issue of our journal, may also be interested to read two papers on the same subject by Billy R. Close and Patrick L. Mason, "What's Race and Ethnicity Got to Do With It? Officer Characteristics and Driver Searches" and "Race, Ethnicity, Gender and Traffic Searches: Efficient Enforcement or Biased Policing?"
